

“Golden” Sonwabo Nongauzo worked as a carpenter & gardener . a man who follows his dream literally & makes flowers – roses, daisies, sunflowers with just a pair of scissors . actively selling the flowers at markets & during the night in the streets or from his workshop . 2000 Grace brought members of the SA-delegation from Aachen to his workplace, since then „Golden Flowers“ are the symbol of the partnership . although Golden has never been to Germany, his reputation there precedes him . “I had 3 dreams where my uncle shows me flowers, saying they will be a means to make a living. My 1st dream I didn’t believe nor understood it, I thought it was to sell fresh flowers. The 2nd dream I told my wife who was sceptical, but black people believe dreams are powerful means by which the ancestors communicate to us. By the 3rd dream I woke up and traced my steps to the aluminium tin-cans rubbish dump, I finally understood that I was to make the flowers from these tin-cans.”

guten Morgen    guten Tag    wie heisst du?    vielen Dank    malume/uncle
