

Josefine Ebel studied Fine Arts & Teaching (Art & Theology) . works for InWent (International Advanced Training & Development - a non-profit organization with worldwide operations dedicated to human resource development, advanced training and dialogue) . since 1999 supporting the LA21-partnership via InWent in the coordination group and financial support of projects and exchanges . 2003 & 2007 member of the CT-delegation . loves all kinds of handicraft . „I remind people that there should be no differences between the partner-groups. I am taking care of the „soul of the partnership“, including the equality of all participants who need to work together at eye level – the main idea of all Agenda 21-projects. They are islands of hope. I want to bring together government, ecology, culture, politics and NGOs to work on sustainability.“

work at eye-level friendships & contacts warmth from the heart amazing moments conflicts, solved ones as well exchanges & encounters understanding & comprehension