

Sabine Verheyen studied Architecture . since 2000 patron of the partnership/Schirmherrin der Partnerschaft as a Deputy Mayor of City of Aachen . 2003 member of the CT-delegation . 2006 member of the ICLEI-conference in Cape Town, received a prize for the bicycle-project on behalf of the partnership . since 2009 member of the European Parliament & member of the EPZA-delegation . "I learned lots of things from the south, to be happy with the life you have, how to share, to see the value of the things that are not material, of the small things, of uncommon friendship, to get more awareness of situations and life-circumstances."

friendship fascination sustainability inner balance equality enthusiasm